A New Multipurpose Terminal Has Been Installed at Town Hall!

A new My Number Card multipurpose terminal will be installed and be ready for use starting on April 3 (Monday). This machine will offer the same services available at convenience store machines, so please consider using it.

NOTE: In order to receive any certificates, the only accepted form of identification is your My Number Card.

Fees for Available Certificates

- Residency Certificate: 300 Yen
- Simplified Residency Certificate: 300 Yen
- Seal Registration Certificate (For the Person Requesting a Seal Registration ONLY): 300 Yen
- Certificate of Earnings, Tax (Exemption) Declaration Certificates (For the Person Requesting ONLY): 300 Yen

Usage Times: Weekdays from 8:30 AM to 5:15 PM (excluding 12/29-1/3 and maintenance days)

※ When town hall is not open, the convenience store multipurpose machines can be used from 6:30 AM to 11 PM every day except 12/29-1/3 and maintenance days.

If You Move, Don't Forget to Change Your Address!

Whether you're moving because you are changing schools or

Headline:

- First Salon
Lumiere 4/7- 4/9
- Aloha, Everyone!
5/3 - 5/4

have a new job, as a general rule your legal address is the same as the address at which you live. Changing this is particularly important for residency certificates, which is necessary to receive some administrative services. So if you move, don't forget to change your address on record.

My Number Holiday Reception Window

On the fourth Sunday of every month from 9AM-12PM and 1PM-4:45PM, there will be a holiday reception counter for My Number Card applications at the My Number Card special reception counter on the second floor of Seika Town Hall. This is only for those who have received the My Number notification card. A reservation is required and must be made when Seika Town Hall is open.

NOTE: The schedule may change due to maintenance or other circumstances.
