The Seika Town Lifelong Learning Division will be accepting applications for the Coming-of-age Ceremony Committee from people turning twenty years old this fiscal year. The coming-of-age ceremony is something that only happens once in a person's lifetime, so why not try to make some memories with friends at the same time?

Target Applicants: People born between April 2, 1997 and April 1, 1998.

Number of People: 10

Details: Responsibilities include managing registration at the ceremony, choosing a representative to give a speech, moderating the first part of the ceremony, planning and managing the events during the gathering of those turning twenty in the second part.

※All details will be decided in 4-5 meetings leading up to Coming-of-Age Day (January 8, 2018).

Application: By August 10 (Thursday), send your name, birthdate, names of your elementary and middle schools, and contact information (cell phone number, e-mail address, etc.) by e-mail or fax to the Lifelong Learning Division OR call the below between 9AM-12PM, 1PM-5PM.

たなばた Tanabata

July 7 is Tanabata in Japan. This comes from a legend where a prince and princess who live in the heavens are separated by the Milky Way and meet once a year. If it is raining, the rain is said to be the tears of the couple. Children hang papers with their wishes on trees like the one pictured above.
