Residence Records: The Alien Registration System Will Be Abolished

Starting this fall, foreign residents will receive "residence records," the same as Japanese nationals. Households with both Japanese and foreign residents will now be recorded and printed on the same residence record.

Who will receive a residence record?

Any foreign resident who will be in Japan for more than three months, has a fixed address, and falls under one of the following categories. (This does not apply to temporary visitors)

· Medium to long term residents (Will receive a residence card)

- Special permanent residents (Will receive a special permanent resident certificate)
- Persons granted permission for temporary refuge or provisional stay

• Those who continue to stay in Japan provisionally by birth or loss of nationality If you are currently not properly applied for alien registration, you may not receive a residence record. If there have been any changes in your address, period of stay, or status, contact the number below.

What is listed on a residence record?

Your place of birth, occupation, on passport number will not be listed like they are on you Alien registration. If you use Chinese characters in your name, the characters may be changed to match your residence card or permanent residence card, and may differ from the characters in your alien registration.

Any foreign residents residing in Japan before July 9th will have their "date of notification" labeled as July 9th, and their "date resident settled into new address" and "previous address" columns left blank.

Check Carefully!

Anyone who fits the above categories should receive a "Notification of the Information Recorded on Provisional Resident Record Based on the Basic Resident Registration Act." If you or the householder has not received one, or you have noticed any mistakes, contact the Seika town office immediately.

Turning in a "Notification of Moving Out"

When moving out of Seika, after finishing all the procedures at the Seika town office, you will be given a "confirmation of moving out," the same as Japanese nationals.

Within 14 days of moving, bring the "confirmation of moving out" and the residence cards or special permanent resident cards of everyone who moved to your new address' office and complete the moving-in application. In the case of a person coming to Japan from a foreign country, identification confirming relationship to the head of the household may be necessary. See the Ministry of Internal Affairs and Communications web page for more details (Continued on pg. 2)

Important Information

おもなじょうほう

Notifications Easier than before

When renewing or changing your period of stay, after you complete procedures at the immigration office, no further action is necessary. Additionally, the limit for period of stays has been extended, and the re-entry permit system has been changed, making it easier to travel abroad.

The Alien Registration System will be abolished

The certificate of alien registration will be replaced by either a "resident card" or a "special permanent resident certificate." However you may still use your certificate of alien registration after July 9th. Please complete the appropriate procedures before your certificate expires, special permanent residents applying at the town office and mid to long term residents at their local immigration office. Also, if you renew your period of residence, your certificate of alien registration will be exchanged for a resident card. For more information see the Minister of Justice's Immigration Control office homepage.

Renewing and Changing your Information

The information in your alien registration will be moved from the town office the Ministry of Justice for storage. After July 9th, you will no longer be able to print a "Certification of information recorded on foreign resident registration file" at the town office. If you need a copy of earlier registered matters (change history of your name, date of birth, nationality or address, history of family background registration), your date of permission to land or birthplace, you may apply for a copy at the Seika town office until Friday, July 6th. After July 9th, you will have to apply to the Ministry of Justice (TEL: 03-3580-4111)

Yojijukugo Corner 四字熟語コーナー

Howdy everyone and welcome to the Yojijukugo Corner! Yojijukugo are Japanese idioms made up of four Kanji.

Fugen Jikou "Actions speak louder than words

Oftentimes when faced with something tough or something they don't want to do but should, many people will complain or make excuses. But in these situations the best thing to do is just grit your teeth and get it done. A person who believes in fugen jikou won't waste words by complaining or making excuses, they'll just do the right thing.

Note From the Editor へんしゅうしゃのことば

Howdy everyone! Unfortunately, I only have about two months left in Seika. After that point I'll be transferring off to Niigata prefecture, but in my remaining time, there's still so much left I want to do!

Only recently I got to try some of Seika's famous strawberries, and I want to be sure to try some more before I go. Also, since I haven't had the chance to go to many of the events at the Keihanna Commemorative Park, I've decided to go to as many of those events and festivals as possible. Here's to making my last months in Seika the best yet!

I have a blog about my life in Seika that everyone should check out! http://seikalife.blogspot.com

Festivals and National Holidays さいじつ・ぎょうじ

June 19th Father's Day 交の日

A day to thank fathers for all their hard work and dedication to the family. Started in the United States a little over a hundred years ago, the holiday has spread to many parts of the world who wish to support their dads. Be sure to thank your dad, either through a phone call, e-mail, letter, or directly.

July 7th ^{たなばた} Tanabata七夕

A long time ago, the king of heaven lived on one side of the Milky Way. He had one beautiful daughter, Orihime, who weaved clothes for all the other gods. One day, she caught sight of a young cow-herd, Hikoboshi, and the two soon fell in love and got married. However, they soon forgot their work. Orihime stopped making clothes for the other gods, and Hikoboshi's cows became sick. So the king of heaven decided that, "You two shall only be able to meet once a year, on the night of Tanabata!" The Tanabata festival celebrates the reunion of Orihime and Hikoboshi.

At the Tanabata Festival, people wear yukatas and write down their wishes on slips of paper called "Tanzaku" and hang them on trees. If you'd like to experience Tanabata, I recommend visiting the "Tanabata Star Festival," held in Keihanna Commemorative Park. (See page 6 for information)
